O Holy Night! The stars are brightly shining,
Led by the light of faith serenely beams.
Truly He taught us love for one another,
And in his name all oppression shall cease.

O'er the world a star is sweetly gleaming,
Chains he shall break, for the slave is our brother.
O'er the world a star is sweetly gleaming,
Chains he shall break, for the slave is our brother.

Long lay the world in sin and error pinning,
Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder King of kings lay thus in lowly manger;
In all our hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
With all our broken trials born to be our friend.
He knows our hearts we praise His holy name.

Sweet thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder King of kings lay thus in lowly manger;
In all our hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
With all our broken trials born to be our friend.
He knows our hearts we praise His holy name.

knees!  Oh, hear the angel voices!  O night divine, O need,  to our weakness is no stranger ever, ever praise
Lord!  Then ever praise Lord!  Then ever praise
we,  His power and glory we,  His power and glory
